2/4 March "The Young MacGregor" by John MacGregor Murray- 72 BPM

The image displays a musical score for a 2/4 march titled "The Young MacGregor" by John MacGregor Murray. The score is written in treble clef and consists of 16 staves of music. The first staff begins with a key signature of one flat (Bb) and a common time signature of 2/4. The music is characterized by a steady, rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes, with occasional triplets. The score is divided into two main sections, each marked with a bracket and a number (1 and 2). The first section (1) spans the first eight staves, and the second section (2) spans the remaining eight staves. The music concludes with a final cadence on the 16th staff.

Brief Comment on the tune:

The Young MacGregor should have good value upbeats most notably on high "As", "Es", and "D" (in fourth bar each part). Downbeat "Es" sing out nearly all the way. Keep the flow, and clarity especially of certain cuttings. See video and listen to the mp3 audio perceptively often enough. A good not too difficult competition March.
